

- Ranking first and receiving the glory has been the agenda of some of God's people throughout the history of the church.

I. Here We Go...Again

- There was constant confusion about the mission that Jesus called the Disciples to.
- Jesus will be “handed over” into the hands of men. Jesus declares His betrayal.

I. Here We Go...Again

- The disciples should worry who it is who might betray Him, but instead they spar with one another about who ranks the highest.

II. You're Talking About What?

- Do you see the irony in what the Disciples are discussing?
- The dispute opens the door for Jesus' teaching on selfless service.

II. You're Talking About What?

- The one who wants to be first must become last of all and servant of all.
- Jesus requires His "great" disciples to show humble service for the humble.

II. You're Talking About What?

- When the church serves those without any status, they receive Jesus and the One who sent Him.
- Mark pictures a community where no one is left out.
