

Peter's denial and eventual restoration offers hope to all of us. Jesus is willing to restore all who come to Him in repentance.

I. Peter's Denials

- The sobering reality is that while Jesus is being mocked and beaten, Peter is denying His Lord.
- Peter is caught between fear and faith, love and terror, courage and cowardice.

I. Peter's Denials

- "Denies" is in the imperfect. Peter is saying again and again, I do not know this man.
- Peter denied the Lord to the extent that He would call down a curse to destroy him than rather say he was a follower of Christ.

II. A Penetrating Look • Luke 22:61, "The Lord turned and looked at Peter." • The eyes of Jesus are on us all the time.
