

Paul makes it clear that an accusation against an elder shouldn't be taken seriously unless it was brought by two or three witnesses.

When others see the consequences of sin, it serves as a warning to them.

If we fail to administer Biblical discipline when needed, we do so at our own peril.

There are no seniority rights in a local church; each member has the same standing before God and His Word.

Care must be taken to place men in leadership that God has selected.

Postponed judgment never means judgment has been canceled.

Time allows us to observe the good and Godly characteristics in a man's life.

Pray for our elders...

- For their spiritual growth.
- For their families.
- For the use of their time.

