

We are more prone to take matters in our own hands when we neglect to remember God's faithful love towards us.

Studying the Word of God helps us look back at what God has done, so that we know with assurance what He will do in the future.