

Absence makes the heart grow fonder.
 An apple a day keeps the doctor away.
Beggars can't be choosers.
 Don't cry over spilled milk.
 Too many chiefs, not enough Indians.

The book of Proverbs is a divinely inspired book that seeks to speak into areas of our lives about how to live, what to seek, and what to avoid.

Proverbs 26:4–5

⁴Do not answer a fool according to his folly, Or you will also be like him.

⁵Answer a fool as his folly deserves, That he not be wise in his own eyes.

Proverbs is the summary of how to live a godly life on earth and the promises of blessing that comes from obeying the truth conveyed.

“Trust in the LORD with all your heart and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight.”

Proverbs 3:5–6

“How blessed is the man who finds wisdom and the man who gains understanding. For her profit is better than the profit of silver and her gain better than fine gold.”

Proverbs 3:13–14

Believe that God has a better way.
His wisdom leads to life and blessing.
