

Know that speaking out for Jesus will bring character attacks. Know that sharing the hope of the Gospel will bring opposition.

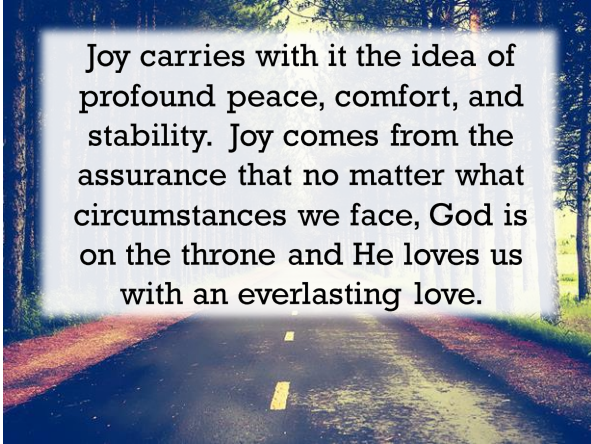

Do you have a group that you are desiring to reach?

“Once again the human responsibility of believing is shown to coincide exactly with what God in His sovereignty had planned.” – Homer Kent

The disciples were able to be filled with joy because they were filled with the Holy Spirit.

Joy carries with it the idea of profound peace, comfort, and stability. Joy comes from the assurance that no matter what circumstances we face, God is on the throne and He loves us with an everlasting love.

Circumstances change, but God never changes.
